100 BOOKS BEFORE GRADUATION

Join the Challenge!

Read 100 books by the time you graduate from high school and win prizes along the way!

What is "100 Books Before Graduation"?

A reading challenge for grades 9 to 12!

The goal is to read 100 different books by the time you graduate from high school. It might sound like a lot, but it's doable if you set aside just a few minutes to read every day. But also, it's okay if you don't reach 100; the aim is just to read more.

FAQ

Do I have to live in St. Charles Public Library District to join the challenge?

No, it's open to all students in grades 9-12! But keep in mind that all prizes must be picked up in person at St. Charles Public Library.

Is it too late for me to join the challenge, if I'm already a Junior or Senior?

Nope! You can join 100 Books Before Graduation any time during grades 9-12. If you start later, just consider it an extra challenge to reach 100 books!

HOW IT WORKS

- Create an account in the ReadSquared app OR pick up a paper log from the Library.

Visit ReadSquared to create an account and track your books.

- Then track the books you've read either in the app yourself, or in person via the paper log at the Research & Reading desk.
- After each 25 books read, visit the Library to pick up a prize!
